

Not many businesses are able to withstand a century of challenges, change, and growth, and it is an honor to remain an independent community bank celebrating our 100th anniversary. I'm confident you will agree - not only have we survived, but we have thrived alongside the communities we serve. If our communities succeed, we succeed, and that belief has been built into our Vision and Mission making us who we are today. We hope you'll join us on October 4th in Franklin as we celebrate as a community together!
